Senior Royalty 2010

On December 29, 2009, candidates will have an opportunity to find out more about the responsibilities of being part of the Senior Royalty at a breakfast meeting

In January, candidates will begin a two-step judging process. A luncheon will be held the first week in January at the Cherokee Sirloin Room. At the luncheon the candidates will meet the judges and be expected to give a short presentation. The following week, each candidate will have a private interview with the Royalty Judges.

All candidates will participate in the

Senior Royalty Selection
Ceremony
Friday, January 22, 2010
3:00 p.m.
Wellstone Center for Community Building
179 East Robie,
Saint Paul, MN 55107

Three men and three women will be selected to represent the senior citizens of Saint Paul throughout the coming year. The Royalty selected will make their first appearance in the Winter Carnival Parade on January 23, 2010. The Royalty chosen will make many appearances throughout the year. This may include parades, community celebrations, visiting nursing homes, senior citizen centers, hospitals or schools. Candidates may incur expenses during their reign for items such as transportation, buttons or meals.

Those selected will become part of a unique, congenial Royal Family who work together to make it a successful and rewarding year. The new Royalty will represent the growing number of seniors in our city, sharing their time, talent and good will toward others.
